02 The shape of the day, continued

Three lines, fixed all day. Your twelve are split into three lines of four. Line 1 only ever plays Line 1, and so on, with all three lines on court at once.

Waves. Rounds 1 to 3 run in two waves on the six courts: each line sends one pair out in wave 1 and its other pair in wave 2. Rounds 4 and 5 are a single wave, so each line sends one pair.

Who plays when, on one line. Players A, B, C and D:

PLAYER	R1 2 waves	R2 2 waves	R3 2 waves	R4 1 wave	R5 1 wave	SETS
A	Wave 1	Wave 2	Wave 1	Sits out	Plays	4
B	Wave 1	Wave 1	Wave 2	Sits out	Plays	4
C	Wave 2	Wave 2	Wave 2	Plays	Sits out	4
D	Wave 2	Wave 1	Wave 1	Plays	Sits out	4

An example only. Here A partners B, then C, then D. You choose the pairs; the pair that plays Round 4 sits out Round 5.

Lineups

Your Round 1 to 3 pairs are already set and posted on the courts. On the day you can change the pairs on up to two of your lines. For Round 4 you choose which pair on each line plays; the other pair plays Round 5.

Lunch

Lunch is served from 12 to 2. Play doesn't stop for it, so players eat between their own sets.

03 Scoring a set

	ROUNDS 1 TO 5 Every set, every round
The set	First to 6 games.
Deuce	Golden point. The next point wins the game, and nobody chooses who returns it.
At 6–6	A 7-point tiebreak decides the set.

Record a tiebreak set as 7–6.

Total games, not sets won

Squads are ranked on games won across all three lines and all rounds. A game on Line 3 counts the same as a game on Line 1. Round 4 and 5 ties are decided the same way, on the games won in that tie.

Level in the standings

We look at game difference, then games won in the sets those two squads played against each other.

Level in Round 4 or 5

All three courts play one golden point at the same time. The squad that wins two of the three takes the tie.

04 Reporting the score

S

Winners take the score to the score desk: Aanvi and Araya

Do it as soon as the set ends. A score only counts once the desk has it, and Rounds 4 and 5 can't start until every score from the round before is in.

05 Matchups and lineups

Rounds 1, 2, 3

POSTED ON EVERY COURT

Pairs and matchups for these rounds are already set and posted on every court, so your players can check where they're playing.

Round 4 · Seeding

FROM THE SCORE DESK

1st v 4th and 2nd v 3rd, based on the standings after Round 3, played in one wave. Pick up your matchup at the desk and hand in the pair playing from each line.

Pick up matchup · Hand in lineup

Round 5 · Finals

FROM THE SCORE DESK

The two Round 4 winners play for the Cup and the two Round 4 losers play for third place. It's one wave, played by the pairs that sat out Round 4. Confirm your lineup at the desk.

Pick up matchup · Confirm lineup

Private Round 4 and 5 lineups stay with the desk. They aren't shared or shown on the scoreboard until all four captains have handed theirs in.

06 Your job as captain

1. Pick a vice-captain before Saturday. Someone who can gather players, pick up a matchup or report a score while you're on court.
2. Get everyone there by 8:30. And get them to their courts on time through the day.
3. Keep the courts full. Have your next four waiting at the court before the set ahead of them finishes. Empty courts are what make the day run late.
4. Know your waves. Know who plays in each wave without having to check.
5. Make sure scores get reported. When your squad wins a set, one of the winners takes the score to the desk.
6. Rounds 4 and 5 go through the desk. Pick up your matchup and hand in your lineup. Whoever plays Round 4 sits out Round 5.
7. Settle disagreements calmly. Replay the point. If that doesn't settle it, find Akash or Rich at the front desk.
