THE DIWALI CUP · BY CURRY UP NOW

Captain's Brief

Saturday, November 7 | Park Padel South San Francisco | Courts 1 to 6

Thanks for captaining on Saturday. Here's what you need to know to run your squad.

01 The day

Please have everyone there by 8:30. First ball is at 9:00 and we can't push it back, so chase anyone who's running late.

8:30	By 9:00	9:00	12 to 2	After Round 3	After Round 4
Arrive	Meetings	Round 1	Lunch	Round 4	Round 5
Photos, shirts and breakfast	Captains first, then squads	First ball	No break, so eat between sets	Hand your lineup to the desk	Then awards

02 How it works

Rounds 1 to 3

Round 1
Fries v 69ers, Samosas v Naans

Round 2
Fries v Samosas, 69ers v Naans

Round 3
Fries v Naans, 69ers v Samosas

Every squad plays every other squad once.

→

Round 4

1st v 4th

2nd v 3rd

Based on total games after Round 3.

→

Round 5

Cup final
The two Round 4 winners

Third place
The two Round 4 losers

03 Scoring

First to 6 games

Every set, every round.

Golden point at deuce

The next point wins the game. Nobody picks who returns it.

Tiebreak at 6–6

A 7-point tiebreak decides it. Write the set down as 7–6.

Total games count

Squads are ranked by games won across the whole day, and a game on Line 3 is worth the same as one on Line 1. In Rounds 4 and 5, the squad that wins more games in the matchup goes through.

Level in the standings?

We look at game difference, then at games won when those two squads played each other.

Level in Round 4 or 5?

All three courts play one golden point at the same time. Win two of the three and you win the matchup.

4 sets

PER PLAYER

Every player plays four sets: one in each of Rounds 1, 2 and 3, and one in either Round 4 or Round 5. If anyone plays three or five, your squad is disqualified, so please check every round.

04 The score desk

After every set

The winning pair brings the score to the desk right away. It doesn't count until the desk has it.

Before Round 4

Pick up your matchup and tell the desk which pair from each line will play.

Before Round 5

Pick up your matchup. The pairs who sat out Round 4 play.

Private The desk keeps Round 4 and 5 lineups to itself until all four captains have handed theirs in.

05 Who plays when

Your squad has three lines of four, and they stay the same all day. Line 1 only plays Line 1, and so on. Here's how one line, with players A, B, C and D, might play:

Round 1	WAVE 1	A + B	WAVE 2	C + D
Round 2	WAVE 1	A + C	WAVE 2	B + D
Round 3	WAVE 1	A + D	WAVE 2	B + C
Round 4	PLAYS	C + D	RESTS	A + B
Round 5	PLAYS	A + B	RESTS	C + D

This is just an example. You choose the pairs, and everyone ends up with four sets.

Your pairs for Rounds 1 to 3 are already set and posted on the courts. On the day you can change the pairs on up to two lines. For Round 4 you choose which pair from each line plays, and the other pair plays Round 5.

07 Your job

1. Pick a vice-captain before Saturday to cover for you while you're playing.
2. Get all twelve there by 8:30, then to their courts on time.
3. Keep the courts full. Have your next pair ready before the court frees up.
4. Know who plays in each wave, and who plays Round 4 or Round 5.
5. If there's a disagreement, replay the point. If that doesn't settle it, go to the front desk.
